

Women Training Women to Shoot Explanation of Levels of Instruction

The Vermont Women's Shooting Association is introducing a five level Progressive set of shooting clinics starting in 2023. All clinics will have a one-on-one ratio of shooters to instructors.

Listed below are the levels with brief explanations:

Level 1: Beginners Introduction to Firearms. Learning safety, shooting fundamentals, & shooting a variety of calibers using both revolvers & semi automatics. Everything provided. 5 hours.

Level 2: Beginners concentrating on the Fundamentals w/o Recoil. .22 only. Everything provided. These clinics will be conducted on Camp Ethan Allen Training Site. Due to the restrictions of using a military range these clinics will only be 3 hours long & members of the Burlington Rifle & Pistol Club will be acting as safeties & Instructors. 3 hours.

To advance to Level 3, the NRA online Basics of Pistol Shooting must be completed with the resulting Certificate of Completion presented. The online course can be found on the NRA website, at this page:

<https://onlinetraining.nra.org/>

The cost of this online course is $60 which is payable to the NRA. This is a Very Good Learning Tool.

Level 3: Learning to zero a firearm. Practice Fundamentals at various distances with various size Targets. Bring your own gun or use ours. 5 hours.

Level 4: More Fundamentals w/various targets at various distances. Introducing movement & holsters. Your gun or ours. 5 hours.

Level 5: Adding shooting from behind & around barriers & One handed shooting. Your gun or ours. 5 hours.
